

Does LG Energy Solution supply lithium hydroxide in Morocco?

BY PARK EUN-JEE, YONHAP [park.eunjee@joongang.co.kr] Korean battery maker LG Energy Solution signed a preliminary agreement with a Chinese lithium producer to collaborate on the supply of lithium hydroxide in Morocco, as part of efforts to diversify the sourcing of the key battery material.

Could Morocco produce a lithium ion battery?

If extracted in sufficient quantities, Morocco could locally source all of the major metals used in NMC Li-ion batteries. The kingdom possesses small nickel and manganese reserves that could supply domestic NMC cathode manufacturing. And Morocco may have its own domestic supply of lithium as well.

Who is building a joint EV battery plant in Morocco?

South Korea's LG Chem Ltd has entered into partnership with China's Huayou Group's subsidiary Youshan to build a joint electric vehicle (EV) battery material plant in Morocco in an effort to diversify its portfolio.

What makes Morocco a good EV battery production hub?

Morocco's massive phosphate reserves are a critical factor in its attractiveness as EV battery production hub. A growing trend in electric car industry is to replace NMC Li-ion batteries with lithium iron phosphate (LFP) batteries, substituting expensive cobalt and nickel as well as manganese for relatively cheaper phosphate and iron.

Will Morocco build a 'Gigafactory' to make electric vehicles?

In 2022, the Moroccan Minister of Industry Riyad Mezzour announced that it would soon sign an agreement with EV battery manufacturers for the construction of a "gigafactory" to make electric vehicle (EV), which some analysts believe is for the world's leading EV carmaker, Tesla.

Who makes lithium hydroxide EV batteries in Africa?

LGES, also the world's No. 2 EV battery supplier, will work together with Yahua, a Sichuan-based chemicals manufacturer, to produce battery-grade lithium hydroxide in the African nation, the company said in a release, without providing further details.

This strategic collaboration targets the production of battery-grade lithium hydroxide in Morocco, a key feedstock for the manufacture of cathodes, which are fundamental components in EV batteries. LG foresees this alliance ...
