What is the trading Haus of Port Vila?

The Trading Haus of Port Vila is the leading supplier of quality items for the water direct out of New Zealand. For Kayaks, Paddleboards, Spearfishing, Snorkeling, Wetsuits and watersports toys.

How do local buses work in Port Vila?

In short - basic! Local buses are just dudes in minivans who operate in the grey area between a bus and a taxi. Get in, say where you're going and they'll take you as far as they want, provided there are enough other people on board to make the trip worthwhile. Domestic flights from Port Vila to the outer islands are irregular and unreliable.

What to do in Port Vila in a half-day tour?

These series of cascades and pools are nestled in a jungle near Port Vila. You can join a half-day tour that includes a 4WD ride, a hike, and a swim. This allows you to see the different waterfalls ranging from 5 to 20 meters high. And then take a dip in the clear, cool water.

Where to go snorkeling in Port Vila?

1. Grab A Beer At Paradise Cove Resort And Snorkel Off The Beach This resort is located on the west coast of Efate, about 20 minutes drive from Port Vila down towards Pango. It has a stunning beach with crystal-clear water and colorful coral reefs. You can rent snorkeling gear for 500 vatu (about $5) or get it for free when staying at the resort.

Where to go zip lining near Port Vila?

If it's adrenaline and adventure you're after, I recommend treetop canopy zip-lining in the rainforest near Port Vila. You'll zip across 6 different lines, ranging from 80 to 300 meters long, and reaching up to 80 meters high. This lets you enjoy panoramic views of the forest, the ocean, and the islands.
