What are the best portable power stations?

To help you decide, I tested the efficiency, in a variety of scenarios, of the best portable power stations from Jackery, Oupes, EcoFlow, Anker, Goal Zero, Greccell, Bluetti, Dakota Lithium, Lion Energy, Vtoman, and Ugreen. What to Know Before Purchasing a Portable Power Station

Are portable power stations worth it?

Portable power stations are more powerful and cost effective than ever before. And, thanks to advances in lithium-ion battery technology, they're also lighter and more compact. Whether you've been dreaming of van life or are building out your emergency kit in advance of that next blackout, there is a power station that will meet your needs.

Are portable power stations suitable for camping?

Almost all compact portable power stations will be suitable for camping, but I rather like the Bluetti Handsfree 2 for this role - mostly because many of them are big, boxy, unwieldy units that take up a fair amount of space.

Is BougeRV a good portable power station?

With its latest model, BougeRV has seriously jumped into the portable power station tech race. This means their products are worth considering when looking for a good portable power station.

Are portable power stations safe for indoor use?

Yes, portable power stations can be safe for indoor use if you follow manufacturer guidelines. Ensure proper ventilation and avoid high-temperature areas. Always check for any specific safety recommendations to keep you and your space secure. What Should I Do if My Power Station Won't Charge?

What devices can a portable power station run?

So long as your portable power station has the right ports and enough capacity, it can run a massive range of devices, including phones, laptops, and desktops. Higher capacity units will also let you power appliances and charge electric vehicles. Check which ports your preferred model has, including USB Type-A and Type-C, AC and mains sockets.
