Where are lithium-ion batteries made in Thailand?

Thailand's vibrant industrial landscape hosts several supply chain centers for lithium-ion battery companies, strategically located in key cities across the country. Bangkok, the capital city, serves as a nucleus for various battery manufacturers, offering proximity to transportation networks and skilled labor.

How will Thailand's lithium-ion battery industry grow?

The Thai lithium-ion battery industry is set to post steady growth ahead, thanks to increased investment from mainstream auto makers to accommodate growth in the production of their electric vehicles (xEVs) in Thailand and from entrepreneurs in the Thai energy industry, who have seen business opportunities arising from electric vehicles.

Does Thailand have lithium-sodium deposits?

This discovery of potential lithium-sodium deposits is both good news and beneficial for Thailand's electric automotive industry. It positions Thailand as one of the countries with the highest lithium reserves globally, enhancing the nation's competitive edge in electric car and battery production.

Who makes EV batteries in Thailand?

German carmaker, BMW, launched production of battery module and battery pack in Thailand in September 2019, in partnership with the DRÄXLMAIER Group, which is one of BMW's suppliers. Mercedes-Benz and Toyota have also announced plans to produce batteries for electric vehicles in Thailand. (Sources: Bangkok Post, InsideEVs)

Can Thailand become a major EV battery producer?

Thailand discovered two significant deposits of lithium and sodium, key ingredients for electric vehicle (EV) battery production, marking the country's stride towards becoming a central and primary production base in the region.

How much will Thailand invest in battery production?

Mr Narit said that this year at least two large manufacturers would have clear plans to produce battery cells in Thailand and they would invest about 30 billion baht in total for this purpose. Each manufacturer would begin with a production capacity of 6-10 gigawatt hours a year, he said.
